

eLearning at Fort Osage R-1 Schools

Terms of Use

The following terms of use apply to all areas of the eLearning Environment (Moodle). This code is in addition to the Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) and all user's must follow the rules and regulations contained in the AUP.

Access

All learners attending Fort Osage R-1 Schools are permitted access to the eLearning Environment* (Moodle) in accordance with these terms. Access may be restricted or removed due to misuse.

*The services offered on the eLearning site are subject to change without notice.

Terms of Use

When using the eLearning environment, teachers must...

- Maintain and use only approved content according to district policies.
- Comply with copyright law
- Maintain their courses in a timely manner
- Monitor student usage in the same manner as expected of student supervision in the classroom
- Enforce the rules and regulations that are expected in classroom behavior

When using the eLearning environment, users must...

- Respect the rights of others.
- Remember to logout at the end of each session.
- Comply with the current Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) on file with the school district.

The following are not permitted at any time...

- The creation, display, production, storage, circulation or transmission of pornographic or other offensive material in any form or medium. (Including sending, posting or displaying offensive images, language or any other type of offensive content including the bullying, harassment or intimidation of others.)
- Users must not create, store or transmit:
 - Defamatory or libellous material
 - Material that infringes copyright
 - Unsolicited commercial or advertising material
- Intentionally providing or submitting false information (i.e. on ILPs etc).
- Intentionally restricting network traffic with high bandwidth use.
- Flooding forums and other services unnecessarily or with inappropriate content/material.
- Editing or modifying any element of the eLearning environment without permission.
- Using others' passwords or log-in identities.
- Deliberately introducing any virus, worm, Trojan horse or other harmful or nuisance programme or file, or deliberately circumventing any precautions taken by the College to prevent this from happening.
- Using the eLearning environment for commercial purposes or profit.
- Using the eLearning environment for political purposes.
- Using the eLearning environment inappropriately during class time.
- Copying any code, software or content provided without permission.
- Providing access to non-Fort Osage School District members without permission.
- Violating copyright laws, data protection laws and computer misuse laws.